This gradually sloping land overlooks the rugged south-east coast of the St. Lucia, with its gentle procession of Atlantic waves meeting the undulating grasslands in foamy splendor.

Located with its access right off of the main highway, a private road takes you through this spectacular property to the 5.5 acre beach front. This property affords the ultimate opportunity to acquire pristine development land for persons looking for a profitable, long term investment in St. Lucia. Due to its location between two major hotel developments, property values will substantially increase over the coming years.
